

Automatic Recurring Payment Terms and Conditions

By enrolling in the automatic recurring payment option, you are authorizing TPx Communications (“TPx”) to automatically charge your elected payment method each month, on the date specified after your bill date, for the total balance due. The date of your bill is indicated on your monthly billing statement. You will receive your monthly bill electronically and will be notified in advance of your recurring electronic payment date and amount due based on the notification method you have chosen. TPx reserves the right, upon notification, to terminate this program at any time. All charges, terms and conditions are subject to change. This agreement does not alter in any way the terms and conditions of your existing Service Agreement.

Debit and Credit Card Surcharge

For payments made by bank account there is no charge at this time, however you should check with your bank for any additional charges. If you are enrolling in the automatic recurring payment option with a debit card or credit card, you are authorizing Aliaswire Inc. (“Aliaswire”), a processor which hosts and maintains this online payment gateway on behalf of TPx Communications each month to charge your debit card a three percent (3%) surcharge.

Payment Failure

You understand and agree that if an automatic payment does not occur for any reason whatsoever, you are still required to make the required monthly payment and you will be responsible for any late fees, charges, or other consequences of late or non-payment. TPx is not liable for any overdraft fees, penalties, or other charges incurred due to failed payments.

Updating Payment Information

You are responsible for ensuring that your payment information is current and accurate. You may request changes to the payment method by submitting a request via the means listed on our Contact Us page.

Cancellation

You have the right to withdraw your consent to the automatic recurring payment at any time by submitting a request via the means listed on our Contact Us page.

Electronic Signature Authorization

You have authorized us to treat your electronic signature as evidence of your consent to initiate automatic recurring electronic payment transactions from your credit card, debit card or bank account on a monthly basis. This authorization via electronic signature has the same effect as a handwritten signature on a paper formatted contract.
